HONOR THE HEROES.

Yale Citizens Observe Decoration Day in a Fitting Manner.

Although a trifle cool and bracing, the weather given us for Decoration day of 1916 was most beautiful and a welcome change from the many cloudy, rainy days of the spring.

A large crowd gathered at an early hour in the morning and the line of march to the cemetery was formed at nine-thirty. The Clifford band headed the line, followed by students from all grades of Yale high school. The boys' scouts in their uniforms came next and the Sons of Veterans, members of the G. A. R. and citizens in autos and carriages completed the line, with many following on foot.

Arriving at the cemetery, the graves of the soldier dead were strewn with flowers and flags and given the honor due them. The return march was then made.

At one-thirty Central hall was filled with an interested, attentive audience to listen to the program for the afternoon. Rev. Bragg gave the invocation after which John P. Sheehy introduced J. E. Heavis as chairman.

In his own free, happy manner Mr. Heavis made everyone feel heartily welcome and announced the numbers.

Two chorus songs were sung by pupils of the 7th and 8th grades, and recitations were given by Helen Palmer and Richard Bradford. Then came the little elocutionist from the county seat, Janness O'Rourke, who has quite remarkable talent for a twelve-year-old young lady.

An original poem was given by Comrade Clayton which was amusing and interesting to the audience.

The address of the day was given by Shirley Stewart, well known, politically at any rate, to many Yale citizens. He spoke in highest eulogiums of the bravery and martial spirit of those who left all to stand for their country's defense, and his words came to the hearts of a power and force long to be remembered. He brought them down to the perplexing present day question of preparedness and while no one is wishing or desiring war for our own country, still, there would be the same instant answer to our country's call, from the men of today, as there was fifty years ago, and the mothers of today would still do as the mothers of long ago, send their sons to the front with a mother's blessing.

After Mr. Stewart's speech, "America," was sung by the audience standing and the benediction was pronounced by Rev. Geach.

The ball game at City park became the center of interest for the remainder of the afternoon.

NOTES

Many people from a distance who have relatives lying in Elmwood cemetery visited Yale on Decoration day. Many faces of old-time residents were seen on our streets that day.

Business places and residences were nicely decorated with flags and bunting in honor of the day and the Veterans still with us.

The cement walk to the cemetery was certainly much appreciated on Tuesday, especially with the grounds so wet and muddy.

Saturday Morning Storm.

A heavy rain and electrical storm visited this section early Saturday morning, doing considerable damage. The big brick chimney of the Yale Milling Co.'s plant was struck by a bolt of lightning shattering the south-east corner quite badly. It was the most fierce electrical display we have had in some time. The land throughout the country is covered by a sheet of water and growing crops have suffered to a considerable extent.

HOW APPENDICITIS CAN BE PREVENTED

Yale people should know that a few doses of simple buckthorn bark glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-I-ka, often relieve or prevent appendicitis. This simple mixture removes such surprising foul matter that ONE SPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE of constipation, sour stomach, gas. A short treatment helps chronic stomach trouble. Adler-I-ka has easiest and most thorough action of anything we have ever sold. Grant Holden, druggist, ad

Last Day of School.

Rose Gottlieb closed a very successful term of school in the Bidleman district. On account of the wet condition of the woods the exercises were held at the Gleaner hall. The hall is equipped with tables, benches and dishes, making it a very convenient place for a gathering of this kind. Dinner was served to about eighty, also ice cream and cake.

After the boys had dinner a matched game of base ball was played. The writer is not up on base ball phraseology or we would give the game a complete writeup. We understand the score was 10 to 21 in favor of 10.

Prizes were given by the teacher as follows:

Three-legged race—Clare Thompson and Dale Bullock.

Running races—Will Owens, box of chocolates; Alvery Collins, base ball; Leon Bullock, bottle perfume; Ruth Bontrager, bottle perfume; Mary Phillips, book; Velma Bullock, vase.

Three-year-old race—Myron Bullock and Mary Donaldson. Myron won but as he shared his sack of candy with Mary she did not care for the honors.

Mrs. Woodard was an easy winner in the married ladies' race and received a cute little baby doll, which was cared for by Mr. W. during the rest of the afternoon.

Claude Armstrong won a toy umbrella in the married men's race and the other fellows in the contest cast envious eyes on him while he was resting with ease under its cooling shade.

Rev. Bragg, in behalf of the school and friends, presented Miss Gottlieb with a silver mesh purse. She accepted the gift in a few well chosen words.

M. P. Church Notes

Decoration Day Game at City Park Was Best of Season.—Large Crowd in Attendance.

The nice sunshiny weather of Tuesday afternoon brought a record-breaking crowd to City park to witness the game of base ball scheduled between the Y. H. S. and Emmett teams.

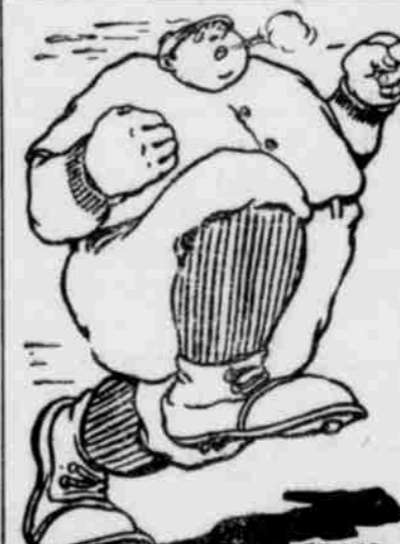

Coach Main had his bunch in the finest condition and his presence on the battlefield in fighting togs just naturally made his team "bone" for blood, and some of the "irregulars" showed up so fine that they are now sure of a regular "birth." With the Beadle boys for a battery, and support like the rest of the team gave them, Yale could wipe almost any town off the map.

The Emmett team was rather a hyphenated affair, the visiting management using many foreigners in the line-up. Bricker and Dowd, star stick-artists from Avoca were in the game, but neither seemed to come up to expectations. Big "Jim," who has been

Back in '64 they used to consider it a great honor to steal second. Jim LaForge tried it on the youngsters Tuesday but was nabbed by 20 feet. Our artist caught him just after he got up steam.

Emmett's initial sacker for nearly fifty years was with us again, and his playing shows that farming agrees with him. The only change we can see between him now and the Jim of years ago are the changes that come with old age. He has the same sunny smile but lacks his old "pep" and "ginger." The visitors, to a man, were a good-natured, gentlemanly bunch, and took their defeat gallantly, realizing that for this day, at least, Yale was the best playing team.

The Yale boys were all in the best of form and played ball every minute. It was the intention of Coach Main to

Here's Why G. & B. PEARL Wire Cloth Stops Screen Expense

Painting—repairing—replacing screen—these are the expenses which make inefficient wire cloth a source of annoyance and money loss. When you screen with genuine G. & B. PEARL, you do away with painting, repairing, replacements—simply because PEARL is rust-proof as metal can be made, consequently makes a screen that's practically wear-proof.

G. & B. PEARL represents true screen economy. It outwears all imitations so far that no other similar appearing wire can be placed in the same class. From points of appearance—sanitation—durability and economy G. & B. PEARL is the one choice of the man who wants permanent protection.
